Current Research in Great Lakes Native American Culture

April 20, 2013

John Jay Center for Learning, Room 106
101 South Meridian Street, Portland, Indiana

In the NCGLNAC 8th annual Academic Conference, four outstanding educators have accepted an invitation to present their current research on the pre-historic and historic Great Lakes Native peoples. Each hour-long presentation will be unique in its own perspective. Attendees will learn fascinating information about Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site, Serpent Mound National Historic Site, Fort St. Joseph Archaeological Project and the Miami language and culture revitalization.

Registration before April 13 is $30, $20 for students with photo identification. Late registrations are $35. Lunch is included, however lunch cannot be guaranteed for registrants on the day of the Conference. Contact: Conference Chair Pat Broom at 513-874-8037 or bobbroom@aol.com or Conference Secretary Kay Neumayr at 765-426-3022 or kay.neumayr@ncglnac.com for more information. Please park in the gravel lot behind the Post Office, next to the John Jay Center. Street parking on Meridian and Main Streets has 2 hour limits, even on Saturdays.
