The War of 1812: Consequences for the Native People

April 26, 2014

John Jay Center for Learning, Room 106
101 South Meridian Street, Portland, Indiana

In the NCGLNAC 9th annual Academic Conference, four outstanding educators have accepted an invitation to present the consequences of the War of 1812 from the perspective of some of the tribes: Shawnee, Miami, and Potawatomi and the resulting alliances. Each hour-long presentation is in Room 106 and will be unique in its own point of view.

Registration before April 19 is $30, $20 for students with photo identification. Late registrations are $35. Lunch is included, however lunch cannot be guaranteed for registrants on the day of the Conference. Contact: Conference Chair Pat Ruhlander at pruhlander@hotmail.com or 765-714-5279 for more information. Contact Kay Neumayr at kay.neumayr@ncglnac.com or 765-426-3022 for registration information. Please park in the gravel lot behind the Post Office, next to the John Jay Center. Street parking on Meridian and Main Streets has 2 hour limits, even on Saturdays.
